CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS

Contact Hours from Active Schools

Continuing education credits, in the form of contact hours, are available from Active Schools at no cost. There are a maximum of 18 contact hours available during the week (this includes the pre-conference session). The number of contact hours you receive will be based on the sessions that you choose to attend. A signature is required from either the presenter or the presider to confirm your attendance. Please pick up a tracking sheet at registration. Active Schools will issue you a certificate that documents the contact hours completed.

Graduate Credit from UNC

The University of Northern Colorado is offering participants the option of obtaining one graduate credit. This will be facilitated by Brian Dauenhauer, Associate Professor and Director of the UNC Active Schools Institute. Requirements will include attending at least 12.5 hours of general or break-out sessions and will cost $75. A signature is required from either the presenter or presider at each session to confirm your attendance. Please pick up a tracking sheet at registration. In addition, you must also complete the following assignments: (1) for each session you attend, identify the most valuable information and how you will apply it to your work, and (2) reflect on your entire experience from the Active Schools National Summit.

Cost: $75 for 1 Graduate Credit
